

Randall Cassata Bio

Randy took my first steps in the music and film industry in Chicago, Illinois. After working among some very respected people since 1988, he headed out west to Las Vegas in 1999 where he quickly made a name for himself as 'R.T.M' a DJ / Producer. Now transitioning to the film and television, he's added PA, Grip, Gaffer and Best Boy to his credits.

Today with bouncing back and forth with A/V, he still finds time for walks on the beach...
